

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHT

Team building is a matter of timing and communication. Team and teamwork are central terms of many companies but the true potential is mostly not reached.

With the use of rhythmic and percussive instruments old team habits will be broken up. Tasks are set the the participants which can only be solved by communication, timing and interaction.

Key solutions are developed by this highly dynamic and very inspiring workshop. A “once in a time” experience: the power of communication and the secret of timing.
